Banking Dashboard

Overview

Customers

Campaign

Bank Marketing Campaign Analysis Dashboard

Analyze customer behavior, campaign performance, and subscription trends to support data-driven decision making.

4521 Total Customer

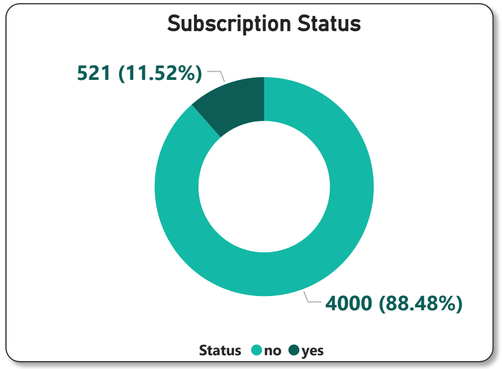

521 Total Subscription

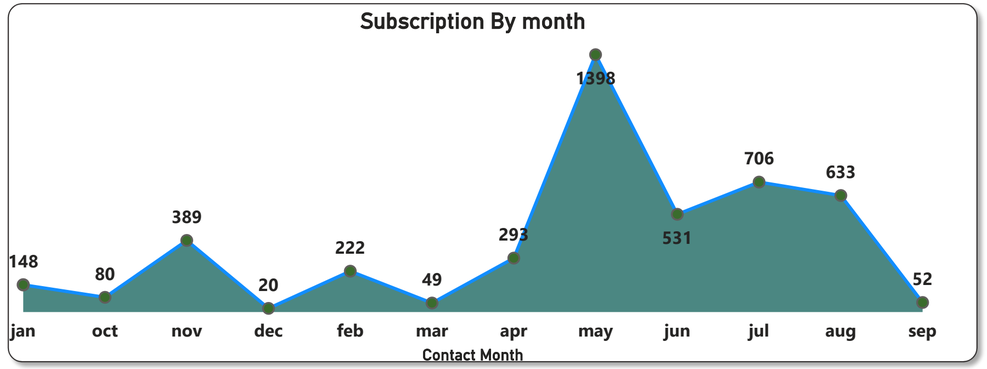

4K Total Non-Subscription

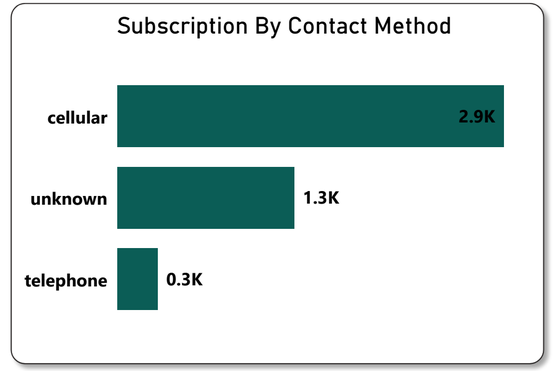

11.52% Subscription Rate

1.42K Average Account Balance

263.96 Average Call Duration

Filters

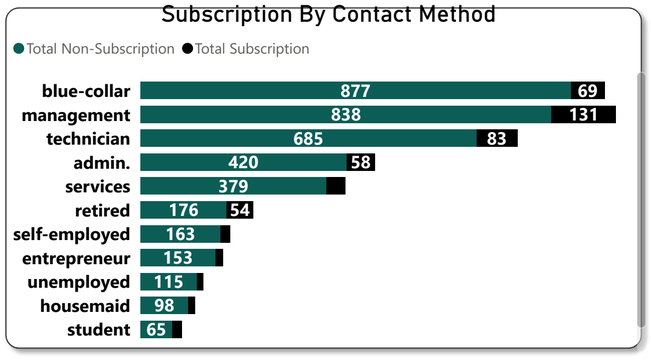

Subscription Status: All

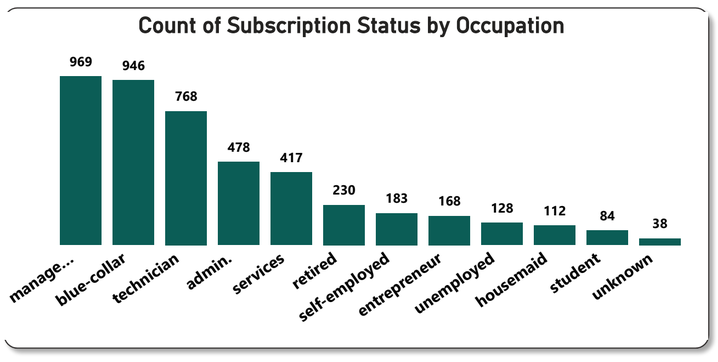

Occupation: All

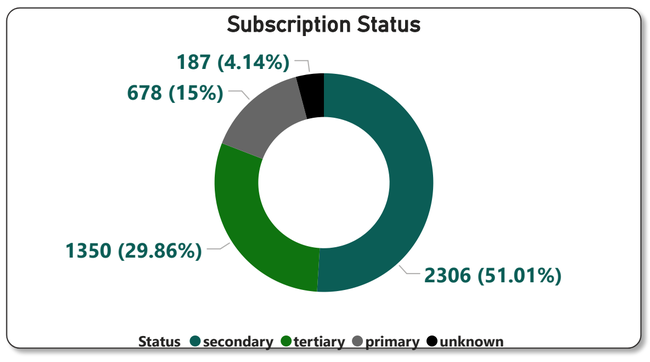

Education: All

Contact Method: All

Contact Month: All

The overall subscription rate is 11.52%, indicating that only a small percentage of customers subscribed to the term deposit.

Most customers were contacted through the cellular network, making it the most frequently used contact method.

Customers in the management and blue-collar job categories represent the largest customer segments in the campaign.

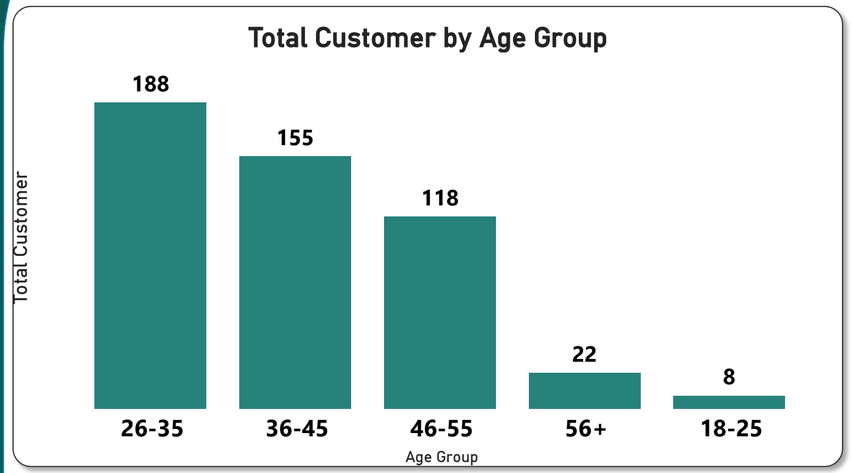

Banking Dashboard

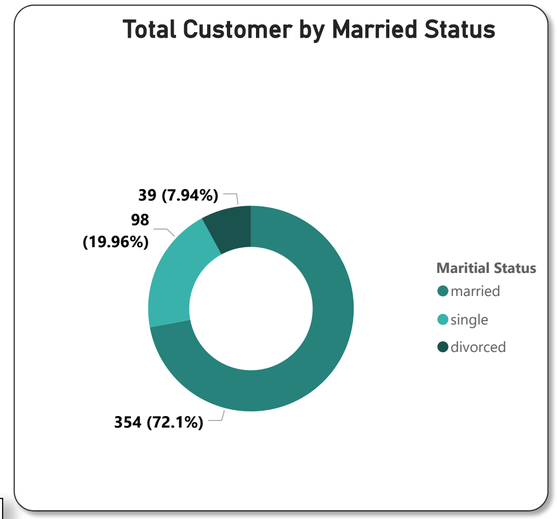

Overview

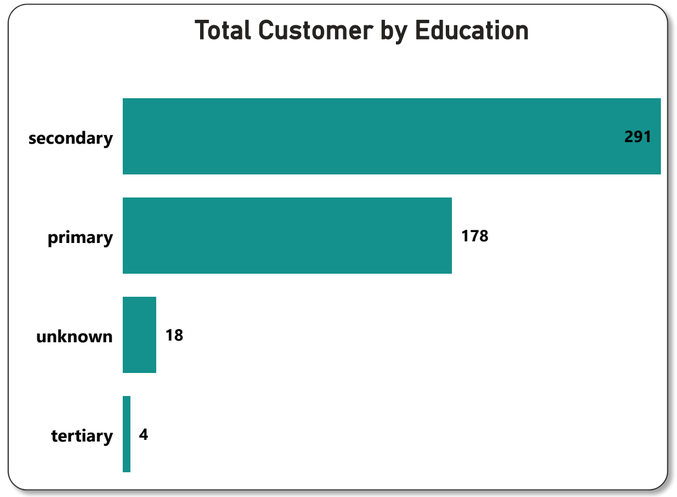

Customers

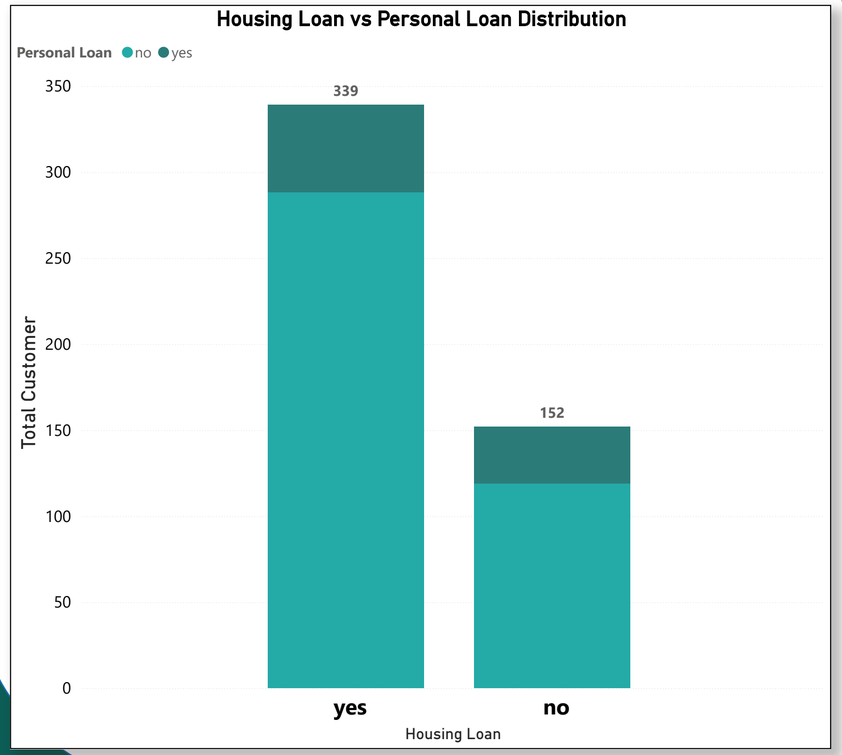

Campaign

Customer analysis

Insight

- The 26–35 age group represents the largest share of customers.
- Married customers form the majority of the customer base.
- Most customers have secondary education.
- Customers in management and blue-collar occupations have higher average balances.
- Housing loans are more common than personal loans.

Filters

Subscription Status
All

Occupation
blue-collar

Education
All

Contact Method
cellular

Contact Month
All

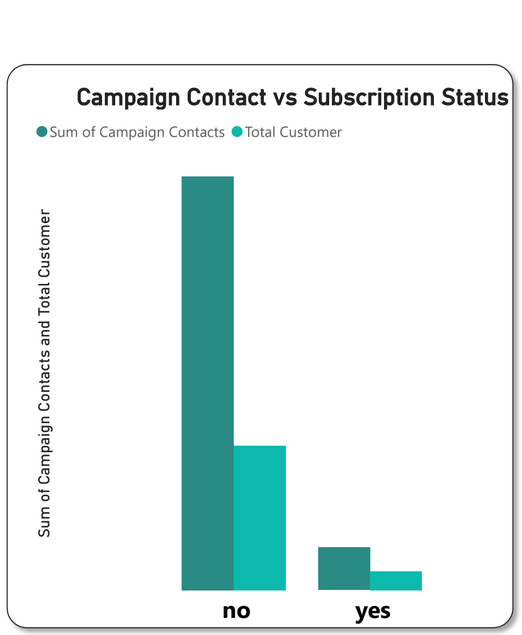

Banking Dashboard

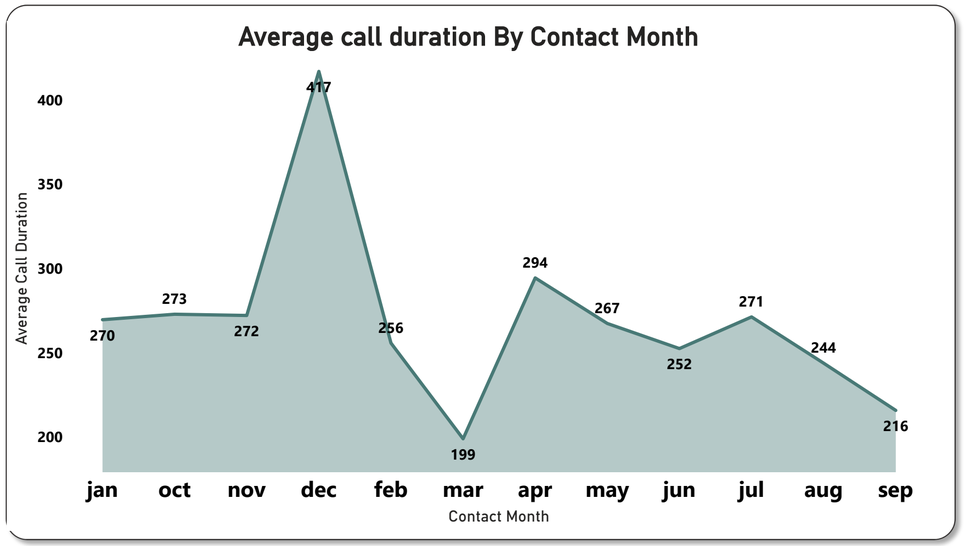

Overview

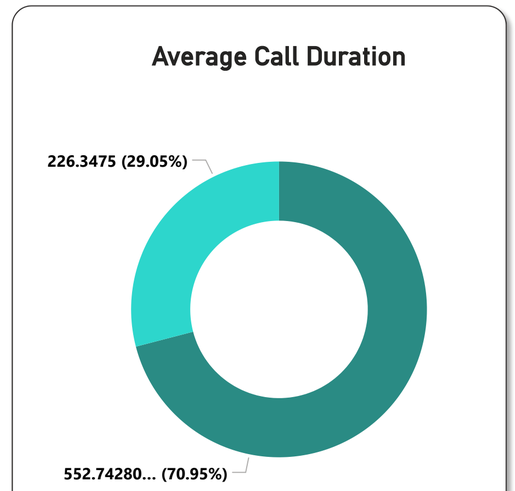

Customers

Campaign

Campaign Performance Analysis

Filters

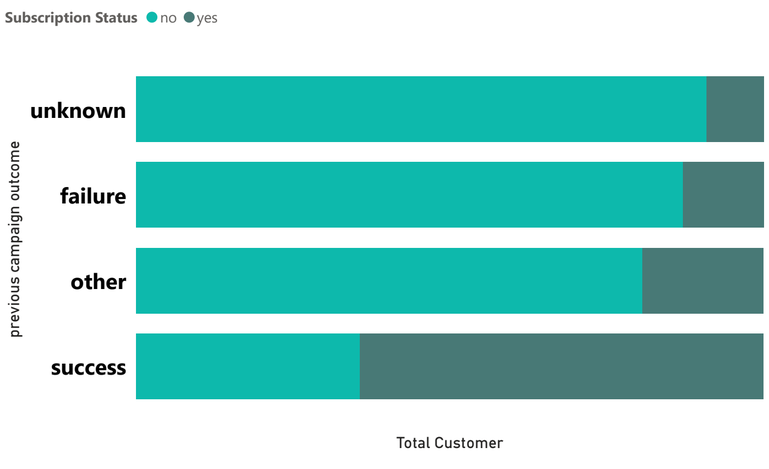

Subscription Status
All

Occupation
All

Education
All

Contact Method
All

Contact Month
All

Insights

- Customers contacted 1–2 times had better subscription rates.
- Longer call durations were associated with more successful subscriptions.
- Customers with a successful previous campaign outcome were more likely to subscribe again.
- Campaign performance varied across different contact months.